Memphis, TN, April 24, 2024 – Memphis Botanic Garden is proud to announce the lineup for this year’s annual Live at the Garden concert series, presented by Regions Bank, at the Radians Amphitheater. The series will kick off on June 6 with country superstar Dierks Bentley, followed by 90’s rock band Goo Goo Dolls on July 12, classic rock legend John Fogerty on August 9, Grammy-nominated country music singer-songwriter Sam Hunt on August 23, and a co-headline concert with rock icons Styx & Foreigner on September 20.

“It’s hard to believe this is our 24th year. Summers in Memphis wouldn’t be the same without Live at the Garden,” said Sherry May, Co-Director of Live at the Garden. “We have a lot of great music planned this season, including a few newcomers to the Live at the Garden series, as well as some of our all-time fan favorites.”

Regions Bank is once again the Title Sponsor for the concert series. “The Memphis Botanic Garden provides Mid-South music fans with an engaging entertainment experience unlike any other,” said David May, Memphis Market Executive for Regions Bank. “Regions is honored to continue our tradition of serving as Title Sponsor of this annual summer tradition as part of our mission to make life better for our communities. In addition to the enjoyment this concert series brings to thousands each season, we’re especially proud that our investment supports educational and outreach programs that connect students with nature and elevate awareness and appreciation of our environment.”

South State/Duncan Williams is the Legacy Sponsor of the series. AutoZone, TruGreen, Gossett Motor Cars, The Lilly Company, ProShow, and Mahaffey Events are series Presenting Sponsors.
