

Guess who showed up at the Garden to help teach us
how to help our earth?

Thomas Dambo
TROLLS
Save the humans

Thomas Dambo's TROLLS:
Save the Humans is arriving at the Memphis Botanic Garden February 2025.

Each of these larger-than-life visitors has a lesson for students to teach them how to become better stewards of our environment. Garden guides will lead them in hands-on lessons and activities focusing on native plants, recycling, sustainable living, and other earth-friendly themes.

DATES & DETAILS

This 90-minute program is adaptable for all grade levels K-12.

Available from February 3-May 21,
2025.

PRICING

$8 per student

Teachers free

Additional chaperones $12

Admission to My Big
Backyard is not included

To book this program contact

Kristen Zemaitis
Youth Education Program Director

kristen.zemaitis@membg.org or 901-636-4126
membg.org

Photo courtesy Atlanta Botanical Garden

Presented by

Produced by

Thank you to Speer Charitable Trust for supporting our educational programs.