Update to the 2025 Live at the Garden Season Lineup

Memphis, TN, July 17, 2025 – The Steve Miller Band announced they will not be performing the rest of their 2025 tour dates. Thirty-one tour dates have been affected, including the scheduled performance at Radians Amphitheater on September 19, 2025. More information on their reasoning can be found on The Steve Miller Band's website: stevemillerband.com.

“While this news is certainly disappointing, our commitment to delivering a full five-show season remains unchanged. Live at the Garden has proudly brought unforgettable live music experiences to Memphis each summer, only once interrupted in 2020 due to the pandemic, and we’re determined to continue that tradition in our 25th season,” said Olivia Wall, Director of Marketing & Communications. “Our team is already working diligently to secure a replacement artist worthy of the milestone season, and we’re confident that what’s to come will be worth the wait.”

Patrons with tickets have been notified via email, and their Steve Miller Band tickets will be honored for the new concert.

For the latest updates, follow Radians Amphitheater on social media.

The concert series is also proudly supported by Title Sponsor Regions Bank, Legacy Sponsor Duncan Williams Asset Management, alongside Presenting Sponsors AutoZone, FedEx, Gossett Motor Cars, The Lilly Company, Mahaffey Event & Tent Rentals, ProShow Systems, and TruGreen.

Patrons can reach out to the Radians Amphitheater Box Office at boxoffice@radiansamp.com with any questions.
