Sip, S'more, Repeat

A cozy fall night out with fires, friends, and fall-inspired cocktails at Memphis Botanic Garden

Memphis, TN, August 27, 2025 — Fall is the perfect time to swap air conditioning for autumn air, and Memphis Botanic Garden is turning up the seasonal charm with Campfires & Cocktails Party, happening Friday, September 26, 2025, from 6:30–9 pm. This 21+ event is tailor-made for date nights, friend groups, or anyone ready to trade the week's stress for a fireside glow.

Guests can roast hot dogs, build their dream s'mores, and sip on two complimentary fall-inspired drinks, think spiked apple cider (with bourbon or caramel vodka), local beer, or wine. The evening will feature live music from local talent Generation Gap and hands-on activities that make for more than just a standard night out.

"There's something magical about gathering around a fire in the Garden with a drink in hand—especially when those drinks are infused with the flavors of the season. Campfires & Cocktails is about connecting with nature, savoring plant-inspired flavors, and sharing a night of music and laughter under the stars. This year, you can even craft your own mulling spices to take home and enjoy later," said Gina Harris, Director of Audience Engagement.

Whether you're coming with your longtime partner, your besties, or just yourself and an appetite for autumn, the night promises good vibes, good eats, and garden magic you won't find anywhere else.
